

The Indiana Law should be left alone. Seniors may become confused if they have to reapply to get this coverage done and it has helped me and many by not being bothered by telemarketers and unsolicited phone calls.